

Balloons

Professional balloon decorations for Weddings provide an alternative to the traditional floral decorations.

Professional balloon designers are able to offer a wide selection of Wedding themes and designs.

Choose from simple table bouquets of balloons to full table centrepieces.

A magnificent archway at the entrance to your Reception room or a canopy of balloons will make a statement to your wedding guests.

A champagne bottle balloon with an archway of bubbles to symbolise your celebration the only limit is your imagination.

Balloon decoration is not as simple as blowing up a few balloons. Professional Wedding Balloon designers and decorators undertake courses such as:

City & Guilds in Balloon Artistry

NABAS is the National Association of Balloon Artists and Suppliers. By belonging to the Association, NABAS members have demonstrated that they are committed to maintaining high standards and adhering to the Association's Code of Conduct. This means that whatever the nature of your event, you can be assured that safety and environmental considerations are given the highest priority.